

First Supplement to Memorandum 2023-17

Equal Rights Amendment: Stakeholder Outreach

In 2022, the Legislature adopted a resolution that authorizes and requests the Commission¹ to “undertake a comprehensive study of California law to identify any defects that prohibit compliance with the [Equal Rights Amendment.]”²

Since the last update regarding stakeholder outreach (in the First Supplement to Memorandum 2023-10), the staff has reached out to the following additional organizations:

- California Women Lawyers
- Center for the Advancement of Women at Mount Saint Mary's University
- Transgender Gender-Variant & Intersex Justice Project (TGIJP)

The staff welcomes suggestions of additional organizations or individuals to contact.

Respectfully submitted,

Kristin Burford
Senior Staff Counsel

1. Any California Law Revision Commission document referred to in this memorandum can be obtained from the Commission. Recent materials can be downloaded from the Commission's website (www.clrc.ca.gov). Other materials can be obtained by contacting the Commission's staff, through the website or otherwise.

The Commission welcomes written comments at any time during its study process. Any comments received will be a part of the public record and may be considered at a public meeting. However, comments that are received less than five business days prior to a Commission meeting may be presented without staff analysis.
