Trial Court Restructuring Clean-Up: Task Force on Trial Court Employees

Request for Public Comment

At the request of the Legislature, the Law Revision Commission has been reviewing the codes and recommending revisions to remove material made obsolete by three major trial court restructuring reforms: trial court unification, enactment of the Lockyer-Isenberg Trial Court Funding Act, and enactment of the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act. Information about the latest phase of this assignment (including staff memoranda and minutes of Commission meetings) is available on the Commission's website at <www.clrc.ca.gov/J1405.html>. At the bottom of the same webpage, interested persons can subscribe to be electronically notified when the Commission generates additional materials relating to this topic (including agendas for upcoming public meetings).

The Commission is currently working on several different aspects of trial court restructuring simultaneously. It plans to release a series of tentative recommendations for comment in the coming year.

One tentative recommendation is now ready for comment. It focuses on the article in the Government Code that established the Task Force on Trial Court Employees and specified its role and duties (see Gov't Code §§ 77600-77606). The Commission tentatively recommends repealing that article because the task force completed its work long ago and no longer exists.

The tentative recommendation is available on the Commission's website at <www.clrc.ca.gov/J1405.html>. The tentative recommendation may also be obtained from the California Law Revision Commission, c/o UC Davis School of Law, Davis, CA 95616.

The Commission often substantially revises its tentative recommendations as a result of public comment. Comments may be in any format and may be submitted to <bgaal@clrc.ca.gov>. To receive timely consideration, comments should be submitted by January 15, 2019.
