State and Local Agency Access to Customer Information from Communication Service Providers – Study G-300

Request for Public Comment

The California Law Revision Commission has released and seeks public comment on a tentative recommendation that would require government agencies to provide notice in specified circumstances, before seeking to subpoena the content of a person's texts, emails, voicemails, and other electronic communications from a communication service provider. This tentative recommendation is made pursuant to Senate Concurrent Resolution 54 (2013 Cal. Stat. res. ch. 115).

The tentative recommendation can be viewed and downloaded at <https://clrc.ca.gov/pub/Misc-Report/TR-G300-3.pdf>.

Comments can be in any format. The Commission often substantially revises its reports as a result of public comments. To receive timely consideration, comments should be submitted by May 16, 2025 to Sarah Huchel at shuchel@clrc.ca.gov.
